

Baker's Marionettes Here For Y-Wives Yule Party

Bob Baker's Marionettes will perform at the Y-Wives Christmas Show, Saturday Dec. 10 at 10 a. m. at the YMCA Building, 2320 W. Carson St. The Marionettes are a delight for adults as well as children. Mothers attending are asked to bring pillows or blankets for the children to sit on. Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Chet Warren.

Y-Wives meet at 9:30 Tuesdays at the YWCA. All women interested in improving themselves and meeting new friends are invited to attend the meetings. Experienced baby sitters take care of the pre-school children.

Mrs. Allred is instructor for an hour of rhythmic dancing followed by an hour of planned program. Coffee is always served.

The future program is listed as follows: Nov. 15, Mrs. Hartley, president of the Torrance Garden Club, will present a program "Making Gifts for Christmas"; Nov. 22, Benjamin H. Neiden, director of the Institute of American Reading will tell of the phonetic reading method and how to help your child with reading; Dec. 6, George Yamanaski from a local flower shop will demonstrate flower arranging; and Dec. 10, Christmas party with the Bob Baker Marionettes performing.

GET IN STRIDE GO CLASSIFIED!

If you won't tell, the shoe won't tell.

Some shoes just can't keep a secret. They're blabbermouths. They're inexpensive—and don't care who knows it. But not Mr. Thom's Designer Fashions. They keep their low prices to themselves. To all the world, they look like expensive shoes. (Only you know how little you paid for them.) Their styling looks expensive. (And why not, it's straight from the fashion capitals of the world.) Their workmanship looks expensive (and feels expensive to the foot). Only because Thom McAn is America's best-selling brand (over 850 stores) can you get shoes of such character at such low prices. Remember, mum's the word.
